Good Neighbor Letter for NCAA Golf Dinner

Vanderbilt University Athletics is excited to bring the 2012 NCAA Women's Golf Championship to Franklin and the Vanderbilt Legends Club May 22-25. To our knowledge, this the first NCAA team championship event ever held in Middle Tennessee.

Twenty-four of the nation's best women's golf teams along with select individuals will compete. While the tournament is the NCAA's to administer, Vanderbilt has made a concerted effort to keep as much of the tournament and spectator focus squarely upon Franklin and Williamson County.

One of the first official events of the tournament is the pre-tournament dinner Sunday, May 20. We want to showcase the charm of downtown Franklin and the country music for which we are famous by having the dinner held under a big tent on 4th Street and then adjourn to the nearby Franklin Theatre where super star Vince Gill has agreed to perform for the participants. It will be a remarkable evening for these golfers, who will come from all corners of the United States and the world. Some will be seeing this area for the first time.

We are working with a professional party company to erect the tent with set-up beginning about 8 a.m. Puckett's will serve as our caterer with the tent just outside its front door (leaving the parking garage open). Dinner will begin about 7:30 p.m. and last an hour before we move to the Theatre. We will have brief announcements during the dinner that require a modest amplification system (240 people at the dinner).

We don't expect any disruption; clean-up should be easy and we will take the tent down immediately after the dinner. The street should be back to normal by late evening.
