MEMO

To: Franklin Beer Board
From: Nancy Williams, Main Street Program Director
Subject: Main Street Festival Permit application

Attached is the request for a beer permit for the 30th Annual Franklin Main Street Festival April 27-28, 2013. There isn't room on the form to explain the layout, so this is the additional information:

The request is for two areas within the event, and is similar to last year's layout which worked well.

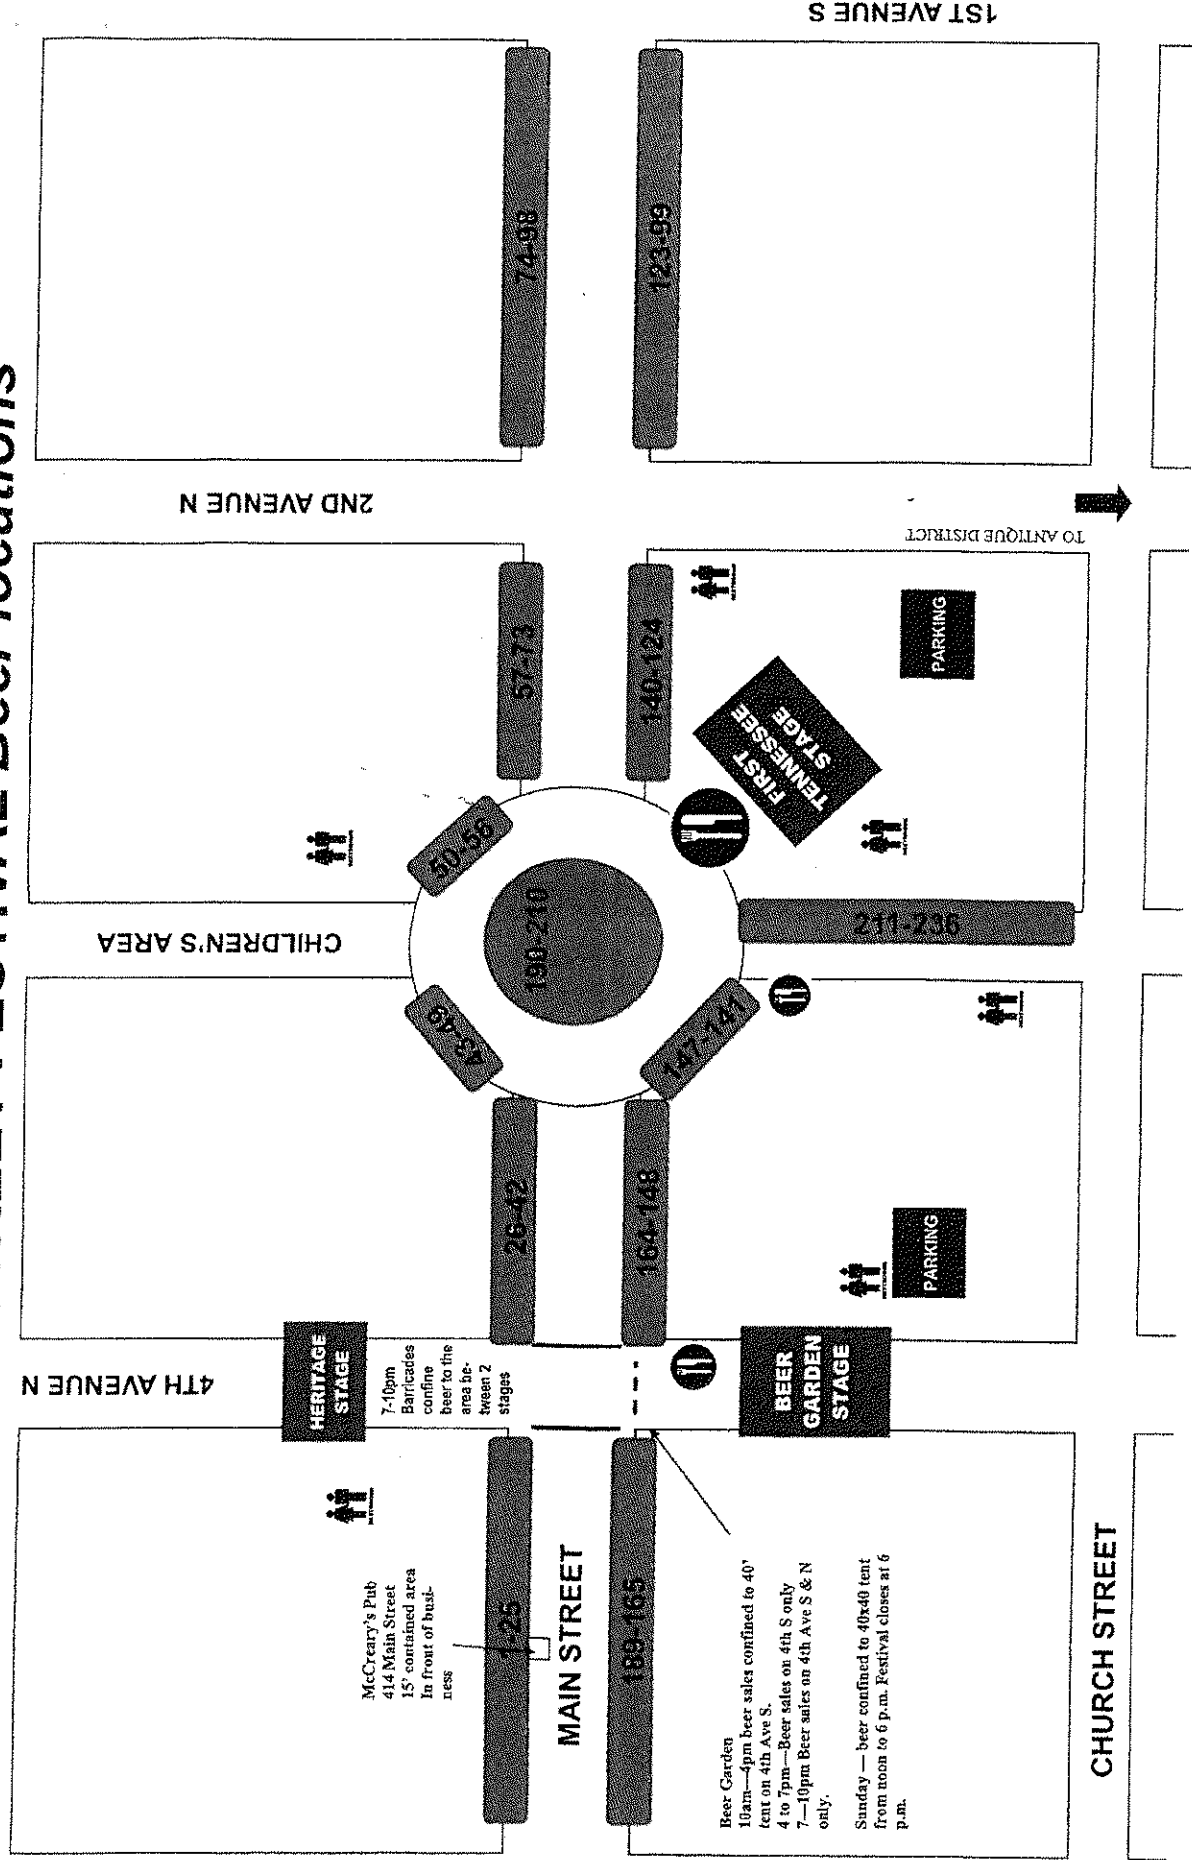

- a. The normal beer tent location at 4th Avenue South in front of the parking garage. The tent is 40'x100'. Throughout the day, until 4 p.m., beer would be confined to this tent. At 4 p.m., we propose allowing beer in the 4th Avenue South food court with a barricade at Main Street shown by the dotted line on the map. Private security will contain the beer at this point. At 7 p.m., barricades would move to Main Street to contain the beer to 4th Avenue North and South until 10 p.m., when the event closes.
- b. 414 Main Street in an enclosure in front of McCreary's Pub, same as the last several years.

This is the same request as last year, except we included Papa Boudreaux's last year. They have not asked to be on our permit this year.

Thanks for your consideration!
