Checking IDs

"Turn to page 11 and let's discuss some of the things to look for when checking the identification of guests who may be underage."

"As a server of alcohol you must make certain that the person you are serving is of legal age. Check for valid ID from anyone who looks to be under 30 years old. Determining if an ID is valid can be one of the toughest yet most important responsibilities a server of alcohol can face. When checking IDs you must be aware of the acceptable and unacceptable forms of ID. You should contact your local liquor authority for requirements specific to your area."

Training Tips

Discuss with the participants which forms of ID are accepted at their establishments.

Commonly Acceptable Forms of ID

1. Valid driver's license
2. Valid state-issued ID card
3. U.S. active-duty military ID
4. Passport
5. Alien registration card or green-card

- ### Unacceptable Forms of ID
1. Counterfeit IDs
 2. Student IDs
 3. Altered IDs
 4. Borrowed or Stolen IDs
 5. Expired IDs
 6. Order-by-mail IDs

Deny AS LONG AS YOU DO NOT

Steps to Follow to Check IDs

- Step 1: Ask the guest to remove the ID from his/her wallet.
- Step 2: Determine whether the ID is valid by:
- a. Checking the birth date.
 - b. Checking the expiration date.
 - c. Examining the lamination. (Is it torn, frayed or damaged?)
 - d. Looking at the composition of the ID. (Does it correspond with the ID book?)
 - e. Comparing the guest's signature with the one on the ID.
 - f. Comparing the photograph to the person in front of you.
 - g. Shining a flashlight to the back of the ID to spot any cuts or abrasions.
- Step 3: Communicate with the patron by asking questions such as his/her:
- a. Astrological sign
 - b. Year of high school graduation
- You don't need to know the answers. You're simply looking for hesitation in the patron's response that might suggest this is not really their ID.
- Step 4: If you have any reservations, ask the guest for a second form of ID or tell him/her that you'll have to get the ID approved. You may also use an Age Verification Form, such as the one found on page 13.
- Step 5: If you still have doubts -- don't serve!

Key Ideas

The only way to be sure your guest is of age is to check an ID!

Possible Underage Warning Signs

A few signs may alert you to a potential underage person. A guest may:

- seem nervous and move around frequently.
- state that he is a regular or a friend of an employee.
- be in the restroom when the group orders for him/her.
- pick up an empty glass and ask for "another one."
- order an unusual drink, such as a shot of rum.
- come to the bar to order drinks for a table full of people.
- get upset when asked for ID.

Leading the Discussion

Again, you should lead the class in discussing the points covered. The following questions can help you encourage participation and discussion about the topics presented.

"What questions do you have about the video?"

"Did you see anything here that differs from the way you've been trained before?"

"You will find a brief review of Reasonable Efforts and Liability in your Participant Manuals on page 10."

Reasonable Efforts

The law requires that as a server you make a reasonable effort to prevent intoxication in guests, prevent alcohol sales to minors and intervene if a guest does become visibly intoxicated. This can include calling the police if necessary. Some examples of reasonable efforts include:

- offering food
- providing alternate transportation
- cutting-off a guest
- checking IDs
- calling the police
- measuring drinks
- serving water or soda on the house
- enlisting help from the guest's friends

Understanding Liability

Whether you're a server, bartender, manager or owner at an establishment, you could be held liable for service to an underage or already intoxicated patron. Two primary types of laws apply to on premise establishments - Negligence and Dram Shop Liability. If you have any questions about liability issues specific to your area, you should contact an attorney.

Negligence

Based on prior court cases, these laws set a minimum standard for the actions a reasonable person should take to prevent problems. Negligence laws can cover a broad range of situations and are relied on in many cases where alcohol is alleged to be a factor in an incident.

Dram Shop Liability

Dram Shop Acts make sellers of alcohol beverages responsible for sales to persons under the legal drinking age or those who are visibly intoxicated. For purposes of these laws, "sale" refers to not only the sale of bottled liquor, but also to the serving of individual drinks at an establishment. These laws are designed to make sellers of alcohol beverages liable for any harm caused to a third-party by a patron to whom they have sold alcohol.

Key Ideas

You must make reasonable efforts to prevent underage drinking and intoxication.
