ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Responsible Vendor Program is to educate you about alcohol consumption, company policies, and the law. Only through this knowledge can you be a responsible, competent employee serving alcoholic beverages. This knowledge is vital in order to maintain Zoe's Kitchen's positive image.

Zoe's Kitchen will actively and responsibly sell alcoholic beverages to our guest in order to offer our guest with a wider variety of beverage selection, thus enhance and support food sales by providing our "Total Guest Satisfaction.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES TRAINING

Zoe's Kitchen will provide alcoholic beverage training to all restaurant management and team members who handle sales of alcoholic beverages or beer to ensure responsible service in keeping with our legal and moral obligation to our guests, and the communities in which we conduct business.

The Responsible Vendor Program reviews the laws covering the service of Alcoholic Beverages, methods for recognizing and dealing with underage customers, the effects of alcohol on the body and behavior and the effects of alcohol in combination with commonly used drugs, both legal and illegal.

After you have successfully passed the Responsible Vendor Program, you will then be required to sign an acknowledgment form located on the last page of the booklet. The acknowledgment confirms you have received training and understand the Responsible Vendor Program, Zoe's Kitchen Policy and that you will be held legally accountable for selling/serving Alcoholic Beverages to underage guest, to an intoxicated guest or to a person you know is habitually addicted to Alcoholic Beverages. The Alcoholic Beverages Acknowledgment form will be placed in your personnel file, kept at the corporate office.

Under no condition will you be permitted to sell/serve Alcoholic Beverages without successfully passing the Responsible Vendor Program and a sign acknowledgement form.

In addition to the Zoe's Kitchen initial Responsible Vendor training, Zoe's Kitchen will provide periodic updates and/or additional information about legal considerations in your area.

If you do not pass the Responsible Vendor Program you may be removed off the schedule or positioned in a station that does not require Responsible Vendor Training.

This training material attached in the Responsible Vendors package is yours to keep for reference.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Zoe's Kitchen restaurants that serve alcoholic beverage are defined in legal terms as an on-premise retail dealer. In this role we are subject to federal laws, state laws, county laws and municipal laws, as well as zoning ordinances, building codes, Tobacco and Alcohol department codes, health department codes and fire codes. It is important that you know and understand the laws that apply to your restaurant. Failure to comply with these requirements carries severe penalties and can result in criminal prosecution and termination from Zoe's Kitchen.

A license or permit is required to sell alcoholic beverages. This is a document that grants permission to sell specific alcoholic beverages types. Licenses and permits typically are valid for one year, requiring annual renewal and payment of an annual fee.

LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS

There are certain federal, state, and local regulations that specifically apply to your restaurant's alcoholic beverage service operation.

Since each area has different laws a member of the management team will provide you with the information to fill in the blanks in following paragraphs.

Company policy requires that we discontinue offering alcoholic beverages prior to closing. The law requires that all drinks be removed from the table at the legal closing hour.

Third Party Liability

The possibility of a liquor liability lawsuit exists with each alcoholic beverage you serve. The courts may hold you, the company, and anyone else associated with the sale and service of alcoholic beverages financially responsible if:

1. You knowingly allow any guest to consume alcoholic beverages to the point of intoxication and he/she later is responsible for damages or injury to himself/herself, other person or property.
2. You knowingly provide any type of alcoholic beverage service to an already intoxicated individual, and he/she later is responsible for damages or injury to himself/herself, other persons, or property.

Remember, Zoe's Kitchen is committed to "Total Guest Satisfaction" One way we look to achieve this is by providing our guest with a wider variety of beverages. This includes the sale of alcoholic beverages. In order for us to do this successfully, you, as a team member, must be responsible for and aware of the legal repercussions that may occur if you fail to comply with legal requirements and Company policy.

Not Acting Responsibly and Non- Compliance could result in:

1. Team member termination
2. Suspension or revocation of the restaurants liquor license.
3. Unfavorable publicity
4. Loss of liability insurance
5. Fines and/or imprisonment (Personal Liability)
6. Civil, criminal, personal and financial liability

Accepting responsibly and complying with the law result in:

1. Maintaining our professional image in the foodservice industry.
2. Our moral image in the neighborhood and community.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES KNOWLEDGE

Having knowledge in the area of alcohol consumption is the key factor in preventing liability lawsuits against YOU and Zoe's Kitchen. The sale of alcoholic beverages is a privileged business; you must understand your responsibilities to our guest(s) and to the restaurant.

The following information was taken from various alcoholic beverage industry trade publications to increase your awareness of important facts:

1. Keep in mind that alcohol is an addictive and abusive drug which can severely impair an individual's ability to function... behind the wheel or any where else.
2. Alcohol is the key chemical ingredient in distilled beverages, wine, and beer. By definition, it is classified as both a drug and food because it greatly affects the central nervous system and also contains vitamins. However, it has no nutritional value.
3. Most beers contain 4% alcohol and wines contain 9 to 12% range.
4. Each person has a different alcohol consumption tolerance level depending on body weight, liquor intake, and Blood Alcohol Content (BAC), which is defined as the percentage of alcohol in the blood.
5. As alcohol enters the body, 20% is absorbed into the bloodstream through the small intestine. Once in the bloodstream, alcohol permeates the body tissue and the brain where it depresses the central nervous system.
6. High Blood Alcohol Content (BAC) levels not only depress brain activity but may also impair balance, memory, and muscular coordination. Heavy alcohol intake within a relatively short time span depresses the brain further, causing severely affected judgment, dulled sensory perceptions, and loss of control.
7. The rate at which alcohol enters the bloodstream and affects the brain and body depends on the following factors:
 - How quickly the alcohol was consumed
 - Whether it is consumed on an empty or full stomach
 - What type or combination is consumed
 - How much the individual weighs
 - The surrounding circumstances
8. Because alcohol is quickly distributed throughout the circulatory system, the larger/heavier person will have smaller concentrations in his/her bloodstream and body than the smaller/lighter person.

One drink is 1.25 oz. of 80 proof liquor, 12 oz. of beer, or 5 oz. of table wine.

Note: It takes about one hour to cancel the effects of one drink. So it takes about four hours to cancel the effects of four drinks.

*Subsequent hours: One drink per hour for each person, regardless of body size.

Alcohol can affect a person 30 to 90 minutes after he/she stops drinking.

ALCOHOL BEVERAGE POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Zoe's Kitchen is committed to the responsible service of alcoholic beverages to responsible consumers. We are also committed to actions that will help reduce traffic accidents involving alcohol. Accordingly, all employees are required to follow the procedures listed below:

1. No employee will serve an alcoholic beverage to any person less than 21 years of age or to any person who is visibly intoxicated.
2. In order to be served an alcoholic beverage, any guest who is apparently under 30 years of age is required to present documentation that shows him or her to be 21 years or older. Acceptable documentation is a driver's license with photo or photo identification issued by a governmental body (Passport or Military ID)
 - a. The employee will check the identification to ascertain that it is authentic. The manager should be informed if there is any appearance of forgery or tampering.
 - b. In the absence of authentic identification, or in case of doubt, the employee will notify the manager who will decline service of alcoholic beverage to the guest.
3. It is the employee's responsibility to notify a manager immediately when a guest shows visible signs of intoxication. The manager will then inform the guest that further service of alcoholic beverages is no longer legal and suggest alternative refreshment.
4. Any guest showing visible signs of intoxication will be urged to use the alternative transportation. If, after strong arguing, he or she refuses, a reasonable attempt should be made to obtain the keys to his or her car. If, despite these efforts, the intoxicated guest leaves in his or her car, the license plate number should be noted and the appropriate law enforcement officials should be notified.
5. You may not serve Alcoholic Beverages to a known person(s) who is habitually addicted to Alcoholic Beverages.
6. All employees will fill out a written report whenever required, for example when service is refused to a guest or when alternative transportation is arranged.
7. It is not permissible to serve more than 1 drink per guest at one time or no more than 2 drinks per guest per visit.
8. No employee will serve drinks to a guest during a short interval.
9. Do not insist that a guest has another drink once they have declined.

20. Alcoholic Beverages may not be removed from the restaurant.
21. All alcoholic beverages must be opened prior to serving to guest(s).

* Violations of the Policies & Procedures aforementioned above will be grounds for immediate dismissal ****

ILLEGAL TO SERVE ALCOHOL BEVERAGES

1. Minors
2. Intoxicated individuals
3. Known, habitual alcoholics

There is no penalty for refusing to serve someone you suspect is one of the above. Follow good business ethics and comply with the policy and procedures.

1. MINORS

It is a very serious violation of the liquor code to serve Alcoholic Beverages to a minor. The consequences may be quite severe! Check the ID of any person(s) who appears to be under the age of 30. Use the UNDER 21 CALENDAR provided at each cashier station to assist you in calculating birthdates.

In many states it may be illegal for a minor to buy, or attempt to buy, alcohol. It may also be illegal for a minor to present a false ID. However, the exact restrictions may vary from state to state.

Even if it not illegal in your area for a minor to present a false ID or to attempt to purchase alcohol, it is illegal for you to serve to a minor. You will be held accountable, even if the minor is not!

ILLEGAL TO SERVE ALCOHOL BEVERAGES (Continue)

2. INTOXICATED INDIVIDUALS

Serving alcohol to an intoxicated individual is a very serious violation of the liquor code. Whether a guest has been drinking at your establishment or whether a guest enters already intoxicated, it is illegal to serve that individual any more alcohol. Remember that CHANGES in behaviors are significant, not just behaviors themselves. Because different people have very different personalities, and differing ways of socializing, changes in behavior are what give clues about a guest's alcohol consumption. Please review the Signs of Intoxication topics below to further increase your awareness. REVIEW THE EFFECTS OF ALCOHOL ON THE BODY in the Responsible Vendor Training Guide page 5.

Observing changes can also help prevent embarrassing mistakes. Certain handicaps or physical conditions may cause a guest to stumble, slur his/her speech, or have difficulty concentrating. Since these are not signs of intoxication for the individual in question, you should not be misled.

ILLEGAL TO SERVE ALCOHOL BEVERAGES (Continue)

3. HABITUAL ALCOHOLICS & HEAVY DRINKERS

A habitual alcoholic has a physical dependence of alcohol and can become known to you in one of two ways:

1. A family member notifies you of the problem
2. You observe over a period of time that a regular guest can not handle alcohol.

Heavy drinkers are not physically dependent on alcohol. But they do consume two or more drinks per day or overindulge on occasions.

More than on-half of the drivers in alcohol – related crashes have a (BAC) of at least twice the legal limit.

REMINDER! Selling Alcoholic Beverages to a Minor, intoxicated person or a Habitual Alcoholic is a criminal offense and you will be arrested and taken to jail. The company does not get charged with the criminal offense – YOU WILL BE CHARGED PERSONALLY AND WILL HAVE TO GO TO COURT.

You are not allowed to serve more than 1 Alcoholic Beverage per guest per order or no more than 2 Alcoholic Beverages per guest visit.
