Description

Our event is of a historical nature, referencing specifically the sesquicentennial of the Battle of Franklin. I'm with Sam Davis Camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans, and we will be hosting this event. Our event is, specifically, to bring attention to the upcoming anniversary of the battle. That day we will have historians and others from across the country giving speeches regarding the war, as well as the life and times of those who lived here at that time. We may also walk folks along the old golf cart trails and the property, and give a bit of detail as to what Loring's Division went through as they approached the Federal left flank. Each year our organization hosts an event like this, and they're held in places of relevance to dates of the war. So, Franklin in 1864, Biloxi in 1863, Richmond in 1862, and Montgomery in 1861.

We are anticipating the event officially beginning around noon, and with the formalities part probably not lasting more than two hours. We do not expect to use - or need - tents, at all. We do want to use the old Carnton clubhouse, as a place for older members to rest, and we will probably offer light refreshments. The United Daughters of the Confederacy will also be invited and we expect several of them from out of state to want to visit Carnton and the McGavock Cemetery next door. I'm on the board of Carter House, and will be contacting Eric Jacobson - CEO of the BOFT - regarding that property and Carter House.

Sam Davis Camp is the owner of Winstead Hill Park on Columbia Pike - the actual 13 acre hill - but the property is not suitable for more than a hundred people. When the fundraising to buy the Carnton Country Club began, our organization was one of the first to step up and donate $1,000, when so many people were naysayers. Now we're finally glad to have an opportunity to use the property, ourselves. We will also be involved in the mid-November event the state is putting on, but we wanted to do something earlier, to bring advance attention to the battle. And, frankly, we wanted to do something in advance of the bad weather that November so often brings us. We have members on the Carter House board, Battle of Franklin Trust, Franklin Battlefield Commission, and so on. We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in Williamson County.

So, at this time I expect our event to run from about noon to 3:00 PM, unless things change with speaker scheduling and so forth. I anticipate about 400 people from all across the country to attend, so that our guest speakers will be outside. We will use amplification, and we understand there are guidelines on that. As earlier mentioned, I do not anticipate needing tents, as there will not be a meal nor anything requiring tents or food. As to parking, because of the numbers involved, we may need to discuss overflow parking with you, or look into other alternatives. I'm unclear as to how that might work with the new Eastern Flank Road being there, but I'm sure that you can offer me the best advice.

I need to verify the date so that we can go ahead and confirm our room block with Cool Springs Embassy Suites, so I will get this all to you poste haste. Would 11:00, 12:00, or 1:00 work for you next Tuesday the 29th to meet on-site?
