Ragnar Relay Tennessee Presented by Healthways 2010

WHO IS RAGNAR EVENTS

Our company, Ragnar Events, organizes long distance, overnight running adventures that take teams of 12 runners on an unforgettable journey through some of the most scenic landscapes in the country. In the span of two days, team or families, friends, and business associates strengthen relationships, build camaraderie, and compete in a 180-mile relay race. The Ragnar Relay Series began in 2004 when 22 teams came together to run 180 miles through the Wasatch Mountains of Northern Utah. Six years later the series has grown to 13 races across the country, making the Ragnar Relay Series the largest long distance running relay series in the world. In 2009, the Ragnar Relay Series had 10 races nationwide and over 24,000 active participants spread across the United States and the World.

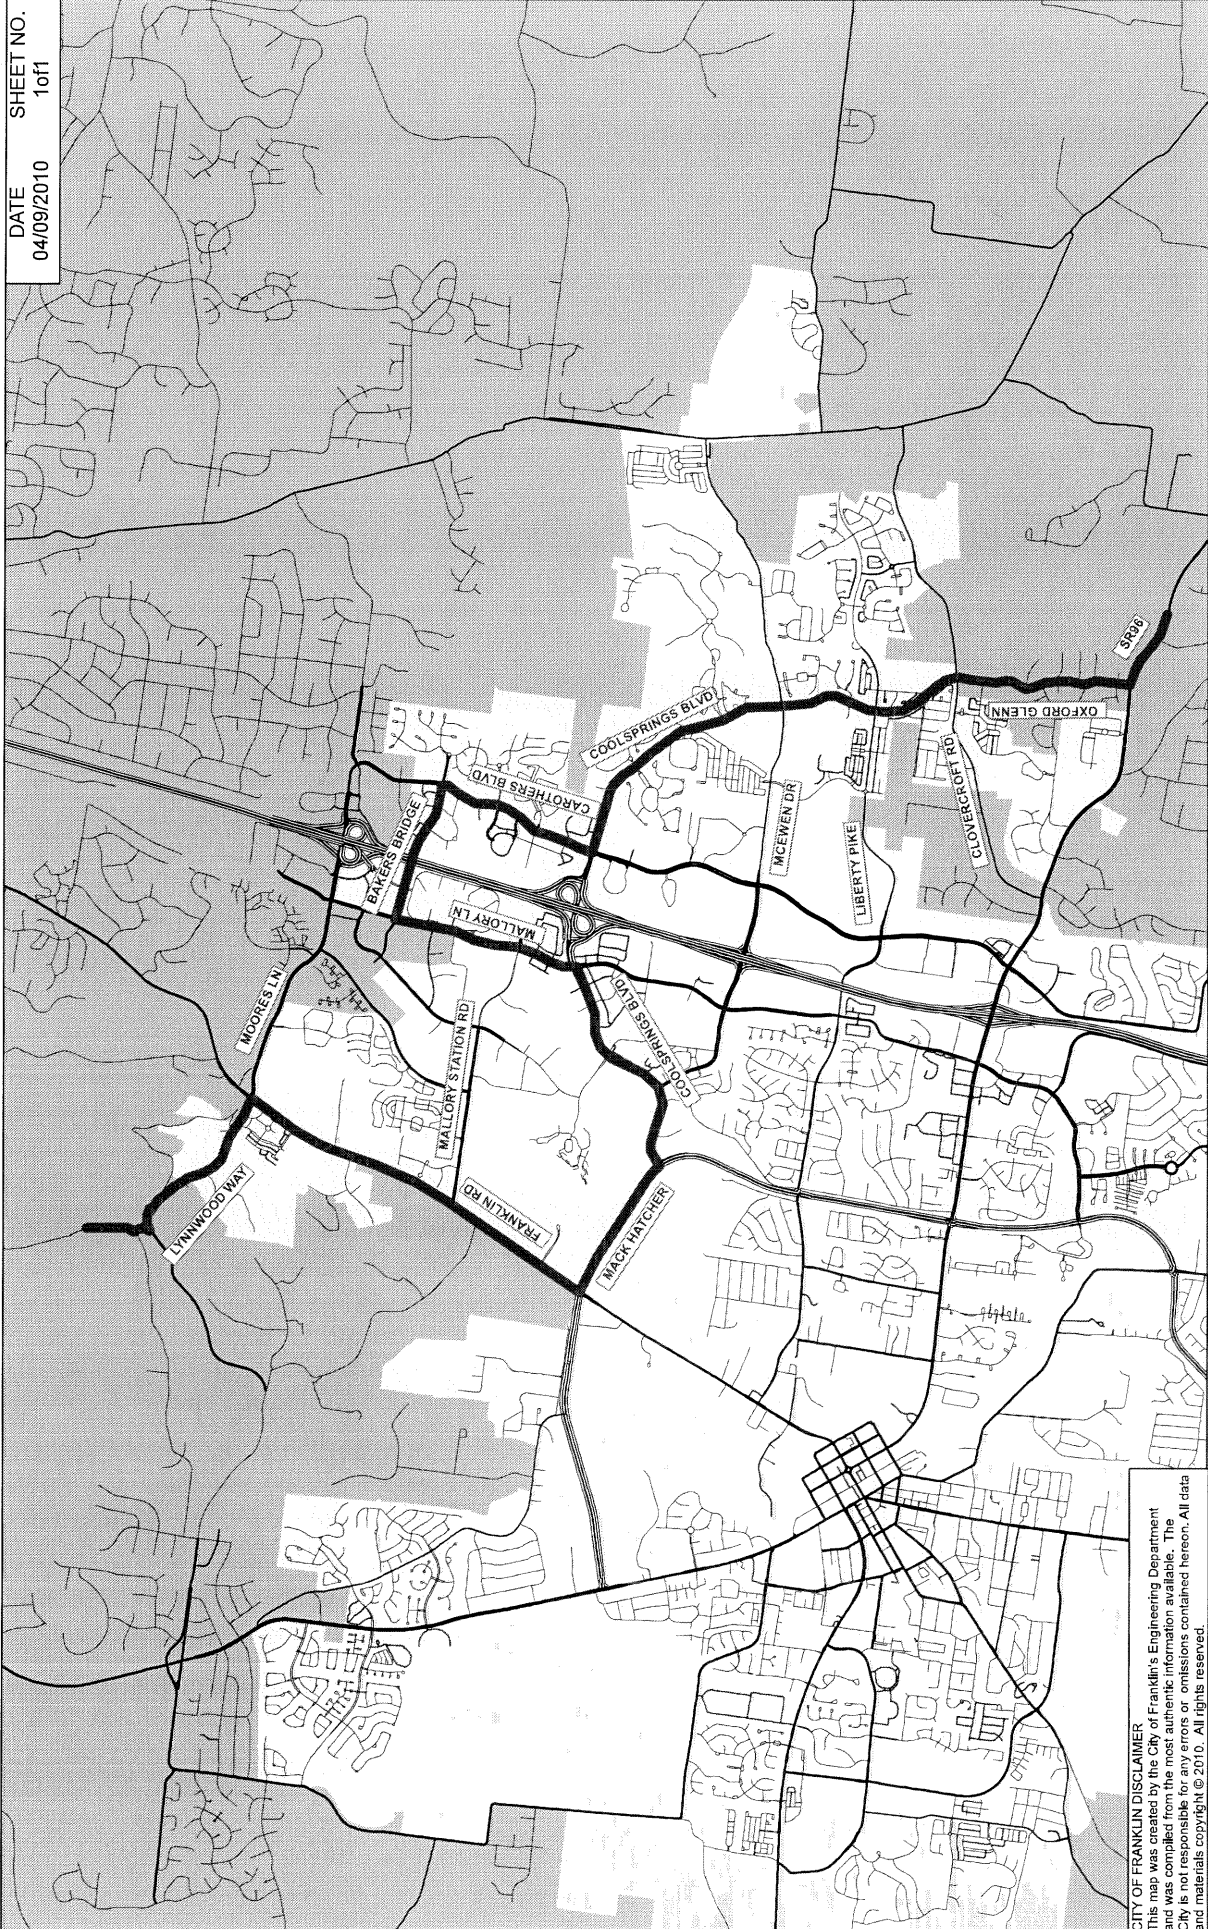

WHAT IS THE RAGNAR RELAY TENNESSEE

This is the first year for the Ragnar Relay Tennessee. The Ragnar Relay Series has partnered with Healthways, a multi-national corporation located in Franklin, Tennessee to present the first race of this style in the state of Tennessee. Our goal is to stage a successful and fun running race while also promoting a healthful lifestyle to communities in Tennessee as well as bringing commerce to communities that our race passes through. We are writing to request your help in approving a portion of our race, which we propose to run through the City of Franklin.

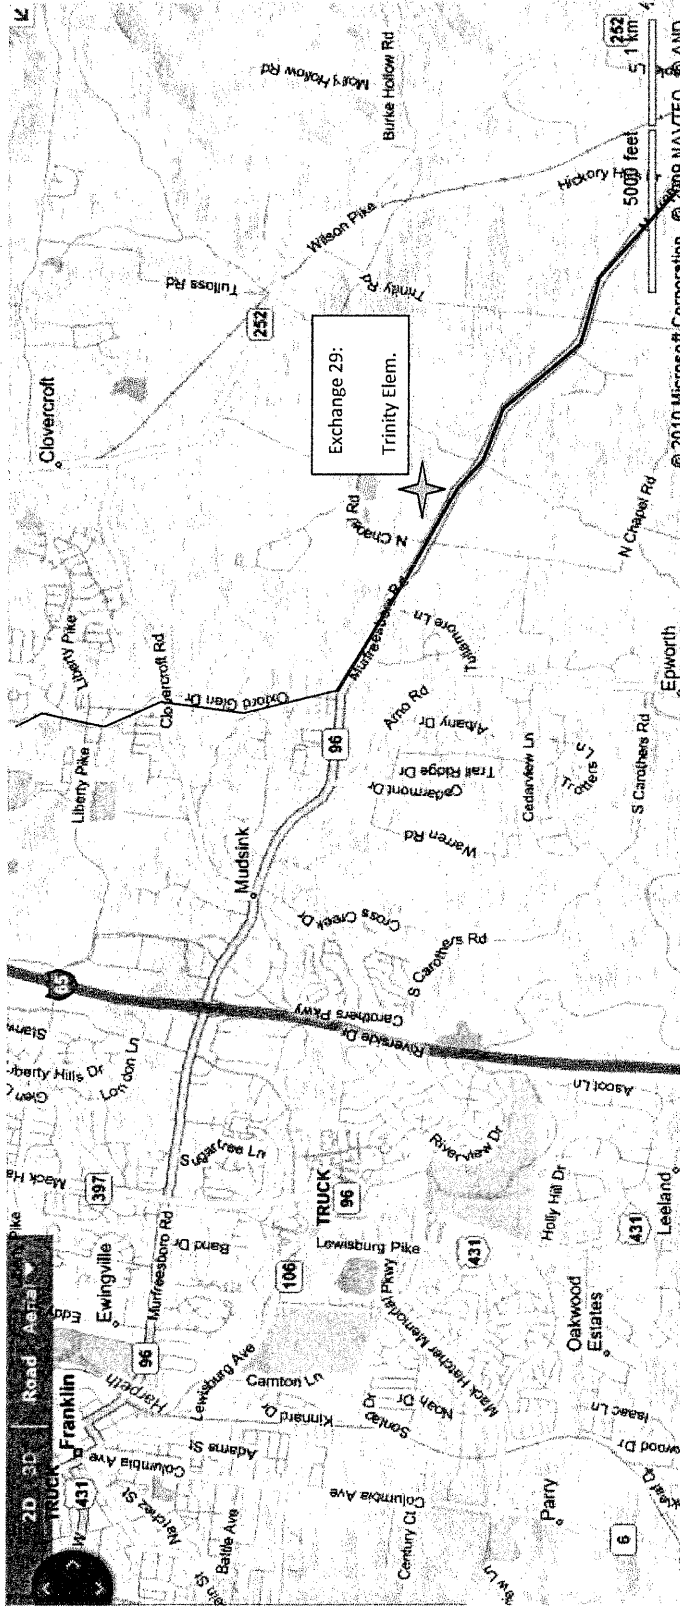

The 180-mile race starts in Chattanooga on Friday morning (11/5/10) and finishes in Nashville on Saturday afternoon (11/6/10). Our 200 runners (anticipated) will be passing through the City of Franklin, spread out between the hours of 5:00am and 6:00pm on Saturday, November 6th. During these hours, a runner will be passing through at a rate of approximately one runner every 5-15 minutes.
