We have a few notes from the HR Department:

- The City Hall Gym is getting a few updates! Please forgive our mess as we create a better space for your wellness needs. Stay tuned for more details!
- May 3, the Human Resources Department will hold a second Supervisory Mental Health Seminar from 7:30-9:30 a.m. in the City Hall Training room. All supervisors are invited to attend. This seminar is voluntary.
- May 7, there will be another Mental Health Seminar for all employees who are interested. That will be held at Eastern Flank Battlefield Park Facility and take place from 10-11:00 a.m.
- May 16th, the Human Resources Department will hold the annual Health and Safety Fair at the Factory from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Today is the last day to vote for your representative on the Employee Pension Committee. Come by HR by 5 p.m. to cast your vote. Thank you to those City team members who have offered to serve on this important committee.

Mayor Ken Moore will give his ninth State of the City presentation at the Rolling Hills Community Church on Wednesday, May 15, at 7:45 a.m. Doors open at 7:00 a.m.; a light breakfast, sponsored by the Franklin Breakfast Rotary and Community Coffee, will be provided. City Departments will have tables and booths set up to show off the City's services and accomplishments in the past year. The theme of this year's State of the City is "Investing in our Community, Investing in our Future." Mayor Moore and I will sit down with for an intimate conversation with News Channel 5 news anchor Vicki Yates. Mayor Moore will highlight the City's investments in infrastructure, planning and quality of life. He will also discuss new projects on the horizon.

The Sanitation and Environmental Services Department hosted four high school classes from Summit and Independence High Schools this week. The teens toured the facility and learned about the services this department provides. Jennifer Gosciniak Stanley, a Williamson County Recycling Specialist and Executive Director of Keep Williamson Beautiful said, "Nate, the kiddos always have such positive feedback about you! We appreciate your team so much!"

The City received a nice thank you note for our Parks Department:

Hello Lisa,

*I wanted to send a big thank you to you and your team for helping us coordinate our Midnight Sun Scavenger Hunt launch this morning. It went really well and I was so pleased with our space in the barn. It was perfect! It was a pleasure working with Kevin, Tanner and Suzanne. They made everything so easy! I know it probably goes without saying, but you've got a great team! Thank you again! -Megan Weisinger, Director of Business Development, Visit Franklin.

The poster features a light blue background with a silhouette of a city skyline at the bottom. In the foreground, there are four children: a boy in a yellow hard hat and safety vest, a boy in a white lab coat with a microscope, a girl in a blue nurse's uniform, and a boy in a suit and glasses.

A little trivia question to see who is reading the ebrief all the way to the end. Today the United Nations celebrates the International Day of Human Space

Flight. What year was the first human space flight and who was that human? The winner will win one of our new logo water bottles!

Have a great weekend. Thanks for all you do!
